

Trauma-Informed Care: Providing services that don't retraumatize people Tuesday, October 11th, 2022

Start: 1:00 PM ET End: 3:30 PM ET

Instructors: Khalil Martin, LSW & Ryan Villagran, LSW

Understanding trauma and its impact on our participants is a vital component of competent service provision. In this session, presenters will assist attendees with defining trauma, identifying common sources of trauma, and exploring the need for trauma-informed services. Presenters will introduce the key components of trauma-informed care, highlight the role of intersectionality, and discuss strategies for effectively responding to and countering the adverse experiences of program participants experiencing chronic homelessness, psychiatric disabilities, substance use disorders, and other bio psychosocial stressors.

Learning objectives:

When attendees return to the workplace, they will be able to:

- Define trauma and identify common sources of trauma
- Recognize and explain the five R's of Trauma-Informed Care (TIC)
- Describe the key components of TIC

Target Audience: Social service providers and helping professionals with direct client contact.

Social Work Practice Level: This course is appropriate for beginner and intermediate BSW/ MSW learners.

Course Delivery Format: Live webinar

Interactivity: This course will offer real-time polling, group discussion prompts, and 15 minutes of Q&A time.

Credit hours offered: 2.25 credits*

Fees: $20 general registration; additional $5 for registration with social work CE credit

Registration includes access to the live event and recording, PDF of slides, and relevant training tip sheets/resources.

To register, please submit payment to: <https://bit.ly/3RwPnDC>

Upon receipt of payment, attendees will receive a receipt via email with the link to finalize their course registration with Zoom. Information for accessing the live webinar will then be sent directly from Zoom.

Registration deadline: Individuals may register up until the start time of the event.

Session Facilitators:

Khalil Martin, LSW joined Pathways to Housing PA in 2021 and currently works as a Team Leader on an ACT team for individuals with Opioid Use Disorder. Before this, Khalil spent six years working as a Behavioral Health Therapist at runaway & homeless youth shelters throughout the tri-state area. Khalil also worked for Project HOME and assisted in the creation of the Gloria Casarez Residence which is the first permanent supportive housing for LGBTQ+ young adults in Pennsylvania. Drawing from principles of feminist theory, Khalil uses a strength-based and person-centered approach to assist individuals in understanding and navigating various forms of oppression and how these systems impact one's personal and interpersonal experiences. Khalil received his Master's degree in clinical social work from The University of Pennsylvania.

Ryan Villagran, LSW joined Housing First University in June 2021 as a Training Specialist. Ryan holds a Master of Social Work from Temple University with a concentration in Communities & Policy. His clinical background includes delivering psychiatric rehabilitation services in the mental health recovery model at a Community Integrated Recovery Center. Ryan also developed and coordinated a training program in a university setting for social workers serving transitional-aged youth and later taught a Human Behavior in the Social Environment course for graduate social work students. Ryan is involved in organizing efforts around ending mass incarceration and believes in the power of our collective imagination to dream of a better future centered around the most vulnerable members of our community.
